DATED : 3.2.2006.

P.C. :

**----

. By order dated 20.1.2006, one week's time was granted to comply with the order dated 9.12.2005, whereby plaintiff was directed to file affidavit of evidence along with compilation of original documents. The plaintiff was put on notice that failure on his part to comply with the order dated 9.12.2005, the suit shall proceed even in the absence of affidavit of evidence.

. Today, learned Counsel for the plaintiff submits that inspite of letter sent to the plaintiff, there are no instructions received from the plaintiff. In this view of the matter, suit is dismissed for want of evidence.
